4.5 SPECIAL MEETINGS

4.5.1 The Board of Directors may at its discretion call Special Meetings with certain parties to address issues specific to those parties, which do not impact the general membership.

4.5.2 Notice of this Special Meeting shall be given to all parties impacted via telephone, email, written handouts, or by posting a notice at the arena. The Chairperson shall be responsible for ensuring that the above notification has occurred and for preparing a meeting agenda.

4.5.3 A Special Meeting may be called as required. This may be within 24 hours of notification, depending on the circumstance.

4.5.4 A quorum of 50% of those impacted by the Special Meeting must be present in order for the meeting to proceed.

4.6 VOTING

4.6.1 Each player member registered and in good standing with DMHA, will be represented by one vote.

4.6.2 Said vote will be assigned to a member, who will be either the parent or legal guardian of the player member, over the age of eighteen (18) years. If a player member is over the age of eighteen (18) years, said players may vote for themselves.

4.6.3 All members of the DMHA present and in good standing during Annual General or Special Meetings are eligible for one vote per decision, special resolution or election of each officer. These votes may be in the form of proxy votes.

4.6.4 Proxy votes for individual, specific issues will be honoured at the Annual General Meeting and General Meetings, provided that the issue has been advertised, either through mail-out to the entire membership or through an advertisement in the local newspaper. Proxy votes, specifying the issue to be voted upon, must be signed, dated and in writing. Only one proxy vote per absent player member, per decision, will be accepted

4.6.5 At all Annual General and/or Special Meetings of the DMHA, all minor resolutions except for those covered in Bylaw 2.5 and 2.6, shall be decided by a majority of those votes cast by the members present and in good standing. The voting requirements for major resolutions are covered in Bylaw 10.0

4.6.5 Voting during elections is covered in Bylaw 6.2.

4.6.6 All votes shall normally be conducted by a show of hands unless the President specifies a secret ballot. When a clear majority exists for or against during a show of hands, a declaration by the President that a resolution has been carried or not carried and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the DMHA shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes accorded in favour of or against such motion or election.

4.6.7 In the event of a secret ballot, the President shall direct the manner in which it shall be conducted with the final results of the ballot determining the outcome. There will be a minimum of two (2) appointed directors responsible for counting the votes in a secret ballot.

4.6.8 Casting Vote: The President for all meetings of the DMHA shall refrain from voting except in the case of an equality of votes or where one vote may determine the outcome of a special resolution or as specified in Bylaw 5.4.

4.7 CONFLICT OF INTEREST

4.7.1 Every director who has, directly or indirectly, any personal interest in any contract, transaction, disciplinary action or complaint to which DMHA is or is to be a party other than a motion limited solely to his/ her remuneration, shall declare the nature and extent of such interest to the Executive Committee. This officer shall then be excused from further discussion and voting on the matter in question.

6.1.2 The newly elected Executive Committee officers may participate in the decision making process but shall not have any voting responsibilities until the start of their term, the first meeting following the AGM.

6.1.3 The Treasurer's term shall run from the Annual Meeting to July 31st of the following year to coincide with our fiscal year. There will be approximately 3 months' overlap to aid in a smooth transition.

6.2 ELECTIONS

6.2.1 Any positions on the Board which remain vacant or become vacant after the Annual Meeting shall be filled for the remainder of the term:

- i. by appointment by the Executive Committee, or
- ii. the duties reassigned by the Executive Committee amongst the newly elected and appointed officials, or
- iii. by holding a by-election at the next General Meeting.

6.2.2 All appointments or reassignment of duties, for the current season/term, shall be documented by the Secretary and shall be approved by the Executive Committee officers by majority vote. Any by-elections shall be conducted in a similar manner to the elections held at the Annual Meeting.

6.2.3 The Past President shall prepare a slate of members who would like to let their names stand for election to a specific office prior to the Annual General Meeting. In the event a potential nominee can not attend the Annual Meeting due to extenuating circumstances which are acceptable to the Executive Committee but wishes his/her name to be nominated for a specific office and this request is received in writing, that individual's name shall be nominated by the Executive Committee. Failure to be present otherwise shall result in the missing member's name being removed from the nominee list

6.2.4 All Associate members of the Association shall be eligible to nominate candidates for an office of the Executive Committee at the Annual Meeting.

6.2.5 Any member nominated at the Annual Meeting for an office of the Executive Committee shall be in attendance, except as described in 4.6, and shall be given the opportunity to decline or agree to run for election prior to the vote being taken for that position.

6.2.6 The President shall act as the Returning Officer for any Annual election or by-election. He/she shall make any rules which he/she believes are necessary for the proper and efficient conduct of the election provided such rules shall not contradict or nullify the Constitution or Bylaws of the Association.

6.2.7 The nomination and election for the office of President, if an election is required, shall be conducted first and the results of the vote, if any, shall be announced before proceeding with the election of the Vice-President, Treasurer, and Secretary in that order, followed by the remaining officers.

6.2.8 The candidate who receives the number of votes that is greater than the number received by any other candidate for that office shall be deemed elected.

6.2.9 In the event that two or more candidates receive the same greatest number of votes and the number of tied candidates are less than the original number of candidates; another vote shall be conducted to decide the successful candidate. Otherwise, the Returning Officer shall place the names of the candidates who have received the greatest number of votes in a suitable container from which one name shall be drawn and the person whose name is drawn shall be declared elected.

6.3 REMOVAL

6.3.1 The board of directors may, by a two-thirds majority vote of all eligible directors, remove a fellow officer who, in the opinion of the Committee being remiss or neglectful of duty or by conduct tending to impair his usefulness and/or discretion as a Director.

6.3.2 Any board of directors officer who fails to attend three (3) consecutive meetings, without just cause as determined by the board of directors, on a motion passed by two-thirds majority of all eligible directors, be removed from office.

6.3.3 Any removal from office is open to appeal procedures as covered in Bylaw 7.6. Vacancies shall be filled in accordance with Bylaw 5.4 and 5.7.

6.3.4 The members may, by resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a General Meeting of members duly called for that purpose, remove a director before the expiration of his term of office and may by a majority of votes cast at the meeting, elect any person in his stead for the remainder of the term of the officer so removed subject to Bylaw 6.3..

6.4 RESIGNATION

6.4.1 A board member may resign from office upon giving notice thereof in writing to the DMHA and such resignation becomes effective in accordance with its terms or upon acceptance by the Executive Committee.

6.5 VACANCIES

6.5.1 In the event of a vacancy in the office of the President, the Vice-President shall assume the duties of and the title of the President for the balance of the term.

6.5.2 In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of any other Executive Committee officer, the vacancy shall be filled in accordance with Bylaw 6.2.

6.6 REMUNERATION

6.6.1 Board members shall not receive any remuneration of their service for being on the Board. Board members shall be reimbursed for any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in attending any League or HOCKEY ALBERTA Zone meetings or in performing their duties as Director may from time to time determine, upon presentation of receipts.

6.7 INDEMNIFICATION

6.7.1 The DMHA shall indemnify every board member, DMHA volunteers, and all DMHA members, his/her heirs, executors or administrators against all losses, costs, and expenses, including solicitor and client fees, reasonably incurred by he/she in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he/she may be made a party by reason of his/her being or having been an officer, volunteer or member of the DMHA except to the extent that such losses, costs, and expenses incurred or suffered by the DMHA by reason of, or arising out of or in conjunction with, the foregoing indemnification provisions shall be treated and handled by the DMHA as an expense of the DMHA.
